RECEIVING: FIRE, BURNING INSIDE AND LOWING OUTWARD

When I am light casting, wind and trees lowing in the wind;

Then I am the fire of enlightenment being born inside of me, then extending outward to my speech, to my actions, and to those around me.

Inside, I am precisely distinguishing heaven's leading impulse (manifesting my virtue and vocation by recognizing that what is on the inside causes what is on the outside; cautiously aligning my words to fit with the reality and state of affairs; and using constant standards, measurements, and laws to first make both my speech and actions prudent on the inside); and Outside, I am trimming away excesses of earth's heavenly yield (aligning myself with, and not changing a single remark or movement in, the Procedure of Heaven).
